

YOU ARE INVITED TO

PIES FOR PIIN!

Enjoy fellowship with neighbors and good desserts.

Consider including Pennsylvania Interfaith Impact Network (PIIN) in your annual charity donations!

When? Sunday, August 13, 1-2:30 p.m.

Where? Sandra Woolley's at 5515 Dunmoyle Ave, Pittsburgh 15217

Learn about PIIN and its justice work in four areas:

- Criminal Justice Reform, including Allegheny County Jail
- Environmental Justice, including air and water quality.
- Gun Violence Prevention
- Public Education and the School to Prison Pipeline.

WHY SUPPORT PIIN?

The Pennsylvania Interfaith Impact Network (PIIN) is an interfaith and interracial non-profit working for social justice in the Pittsburgh region. PIIN is in its 23rd year. Currently, PIIN includes twenty-seven city-wide congregations of all faiths. PIIN has only one paid organizer to coordinate volunteers. PIIN needs to raise $120,000 to fund additional staff. We hope after you learn more about the important work PIIN is doing, you'll be motivated to be a sustaining donor to support PIIN's justice work. Of course, PIIN would welcome your time and talents to do the work also.

HOW TO CONTRIBUTE

- 1) PIIN is a non-profit, 501C3 organization, so you may donate however you donate to other tax-deductible charitable organizations.
